Barrows Swanton Wedding—Persons and Notes.

Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock Miss Margaret Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Swanton and Alvin Joseph Barrows were married at St. Mary's church by the pastor, Rev.
J. H. Fitzmaurice. The couple were attended by Miss Mary Swanton, a sister of the bride and Patrick Donovan. As the bride party entered the church the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by the organist, Mrs. T. J. Henley.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with a large number of relatives and friends of the young couple in attendance. The bride wore white Georgette crepe with wreath of orange blossoms and veil, and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Her maid wore orchid pink Georgette crepe with hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses. During the service Mrs. Bernard Coyne quietly rendered Ave Maria. Corman's wedding mass was sung by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Henley.

The bride's gift to her maid was a sacred signet ring. The groom gave the bride a pair of gold cuff links.
The couple left soon after the ceremony for a short tour after which they will reside in the village of Barrows. The bride has been employed in the local plant of the U. S.
Fishine Co. The groom is employed by the Standard Oil company.

Ladies' Guild Meets.
St. Andrew's Ladies' guild held the second Liberty loan supper Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium of the church. Miss Hazel Bland gave several musical selections during the supper. About 40 were present and a good time was enjoyed. Mrs. Fitch DeBaire is president of the society.

Persons and Notes.
Jerome DeWolfe was a visitor in Danielson on business Wednesday.

William Ringland has enrolled in the U. S. Boys' Working Reserve and will report at Storrs today.

Owing to the meeting of the Eastern Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions at the Congregational church, Wednesday the community sewing meeting was postponed until Thursday.

TAFTVILLE
Corporal Alfred Gladue Now in Field Artillery Regiment—Notes.

Corporal Alfred Gladue has written to his mother from somewhere in France where he is left home by the national guard companies, but after reaching France was transferred to a field artillery regiment. The letter follows:
Somewhere in France.
May 1, 1918.

Dear Mother—
I am in the best of health and hope you are the same. I have been feeling since I came here. I had a little cold but I got over that. I have been transferred to another regiment and like it very well, but I am far away from home. I like this place better. I was out on horseback the other day for the first time and, believe me, when I got back I was pretty sore. I am getting plenty to eat. I am learning how to put on a helmet and those steel helmets are pretty heavy on your head. This isn't such a bad place after all. I like the good old U. S. A. better. This country is about 100 years behind time, but I suppose they will catch up some day. I am every day thinking of my family. How is the baby and all the family? Are they all well? Gee! I would be so glad to get a letter from home. It makes so long since I heard from you. This is the third letter I've written to you and I've received only one letter since I came here, and that was from Isola.
She wrote to me when I was in the states and they sent it here. Now, mother, I hope you are not worrying about me.
For I think a day will come when I will be back with you and let you know we will have a Christmas dinner together. Send my regards to all and tell Arthur to be careful what he does.
A day will come when he will learn Are you still working in the mill? I hope you are not. How is papa getting along?
I suppose father thinks I am learning to drink up here, but, believe me, mother, I didn't touch a drop of it. I will close my letter with my regards to all. Good bye and good luck to the family.

GIVEN THREE YEARS IN STATE'S PRISON.

Sentence For Robino Tachra of This City—Grenfell Lincoln Adjudged Insane and Committed to State Hospital For Three Years—Two Norwich People Put on Probation.

Robino Tachra of Norwich, who pleaded guilty to statutory rape upon Priscilla Gonsoules, 15 years old at Ally's Point on Jan. 3, was sentenced to not less than two nor more than three years in state prison by Judge Gardiner Greene in the criminal superior court in New London on Wednesday afternoon.

Samuel Lee, Wallace Burdick and Nace Butler alias Nathan Butler, were each sentenced to nine months in jail.
Lee was charged with burglarizing the apartment of Morris Rosenberg in New London on April 23; Burdick was charged with breaking and entering a place in Stonington owned by Solomon Gorra and Butler was charged with theft of $10 from the person of George Pollard in Water street, New London, on March 25.

On the grounds of insanity, a jury found Grenfell Lincoln of Norwich not guilty of attempt to rape. Lincoln was accused of attempting to assault Bernice Phillips, nine years old, on Feb. 25.

Lincoln was placed on trial at 10.30 Wednesday morning and his trial consumed less than an hour. The little girl told her story of the assault made upon her by Lincoln and this was confirmed by Policeman Murphy of Norwich. Dr. Wilcox, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, testified examining Lincoln and of finding him mentally deficient.

These were the only witnesses introduced by Attorney Warren R.
Burrows, acting state attorney, and Public Defender Allyn L. Brown made no attempt to cross examine the witnesses, nor did he introduce any testimony. After a short argument by Attorney Burrows, Judge Greene made a brief charge.

The jury was out only a few minutes when it returned with its verdict.
Judge Greene then ordered Lincoln committed to the state hospital for the insane at Preston for three years.

Alexis Roy, alias Alexander King, and Alice Fournier of Norwich, who were charged with adultery, changed their pleas to guilty. They were each sentenced to a year in jail and their sentences suspended for one year. They were placed in the custody of the probation officer by Judge Gardiner Greene.

TWO NORWICH BOYS
IN PINAFORE CAST.
Archibald Gilchrist and Joseph R.
Schwartz Carry Two Star Parts.

In a recent issue of the Newport Daily News appears a comment on the production of Gilchrist and Schwartz's musical comedy Pinafore which was presented at the Colonial theatre by the men of the naval training station.
The following paragraph mentions the work of two local boys, Archibald Gilchrist of Prospect street, formerly with the Love of Mike company, and J. R.
Schwartz, who is well known in Norwich for his musical talent:

All the principals in the cast were good, especially when one considered the most amateur several making their first public appearance on the stage on this occasion. While it is hardly fair to pick out of the cast one or another as better than others, it is fair to say that all the leading characters—Sir Joseph Porter, Captain Corcoran, Ralph Rackstraw, Dick Deademore, Bill Bittercup, Josephine, Little Buttercup and Hebe—were in capable hands. A. G. Gilchrist as Little But-tercup possibly made the best impression, while J. R. Schwartz as Deademore, the lass who loved the sailor, O.
J. Perkins as Sir Joseph, J. F. Wyoff as Captain Corcoran, C. L. Evans as Ralph not only acted well but sang in excellent voice, with a full appreciation of the meaning of their songs.

GRISWOLD IMPROVED.
Captain of New Britain Military Company Able to Walk About Hospital Grounds.

Captain Alfred H. Griswold of Company I, 102nd Infantry, of New Britain, who was in command of the troops from that city when they were quartered at the Norwich armory, has improved in health to such an extent after his experience in the battle of Schoer, that he is able to walk about the grounds of the French hospital where he was taken to recuperate. The news of his recovery has been a great relief to his friends in the town. Captain Griswold was killed in action in the battle of Schoer, and his death was a great loss to the town. He was a very popular man and his death was widely mourned.

HOWELL CHENEY COMING
TO SPEAK HERE FRIDAY
For Norwich District Meeting of War Savings Enlistment Campaign.

There are two purposes in the war savings enlistment campaign, one of which the Norwich district meeting is to be held on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the town hall.

In this campaign the object is to unite the people of the district in a common effort to save and economize so that the largest volume of labor and materials may be released in order to help win the war.

The second purpose of the campaign is to get the people of the district to realize the necessity for universal saving, and to appeal to them to save and economize so that the largest volume of labor and materials may be released in order to help win the war.

The following notice of the district meeting has been mailed to the town chairmen of the war savings committees and to the women chairmen of the state council of defense, together with the pastors, selectmen, school superintendents, postmasters and members of the local councils of defense and war bureaus:

"A meeting will be held in the town hall at 3 o'clock on Friday, June 7, 1918, at 3 p. m., to organize the work of the war savings enlistment campaign. As your part in this campaign is so important, your presence is especially requested."

The call of the president of the United States and of the governor of this state, the national war savings committee is about to issue an appeal to every citizen to save and economize so that the largest vol-
released in order to help win the war.

The registration quota of 50 per cent of the population has been set for the state. Every town and community will take pride and an earnest interest in making its registration a success, but this can only be done with the hearty cooperation of all of its leaders.

"We are advised of your co-operation and attendance."
A list of the names of the town chairmen in the Norwich district are as follows:
Bourne—John S. Sullivan, Mrs. W.
D. Hetherington.
Franklin—F. S. Armstrong, Mrs. L.
F. Reynolds.
Griswold—Herbert C. Webster, Mrs.
Elizabeth Deary.
Lebanon—Karl F. Bishop, Mrs. H.
W. Sweet.
Ledyard—William I. Allen, Miss Caroline B. Freeman.
Lisbon—J. B. Palmer, Jr., Mrs. W.
